(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—William Jennings Bryan will have been abroad just about a year when he returns to his home in Lincoln the latter part of September or the first of October. Whon Mr. Bryan reaches Lincoln a documentary report will await him of exceeding personal interest. It is an affair about which nothing has been said since the time of his departure to go round the world. At the time certain news correspondents at Lincoln sont forth a story which a stracted then only nassing attention, but which now, read

Not Candidate Then.

As to the question of his candidacy, Mr. Bryan was entirely frank, He said he was not a candidate, but he did not say he would not be a candidate.

Reverting to the plans set in operation about the time Mr. Bryan went away, and looking about for results, they are strongly in cyldence. Three Western States—Sour Dakota, Missouri and Indiana—have already strongly declared for Mr. Bryan. The Tennessee Democrats, in their State convention, made no declaration on national issues, it is un-and to see to it that nobody was chosen as a delegate who was not of their faction.

It is recalled also that it was stated a year ago the Mr. Bryan did not content himself with publishing the form of the pledge seen in the Commoner every issue, but that to each of the thousands of agents of the paper and to trusted supporters in various sections of the country blank pledges were sent and assistance secured in getting them signed. The signers, it is not necessary to say, were men willing to "vote right."

The pledges when Mr. Bryan left for foreign paris were coming to hand in bunches of hundreds every few days. As each was received it was filed away in a card catalogue, so that Mr. Bryan or 1 his assistants could turn at a moment's active to any precinct in any county in any State and find the names of Demorrants to be depended upon.

Mr. Bryan at that time deprecated the surgestion that he was trying to build up a machine.

What Bryan Said.

"I am not seeking to build any machine," he said. "I have but one object—that of getting the masses of the Democrate interested and awakened to the necessity of attending all primaries and cannot be carried to the result.

Commission Will Hear Telegraph Companies To-Day-Express Companies Later.

It is not only the railroads that musi answer before the State Corporation Commission as to the rates charged their lic service corporations as well.

To-day the Western Union and Postal

Telegraph companies will appear to show cause, if any they can! why they shall, not adopt the 'rates' promulgated by the commission.

It is understood that the rates proposed by the commission make moterial reductions in the present ones, and simplify them so that they may be readily understood by any patron.

The two-cent passenger rate matter will come up to-morrow, and the freight rate hearing will be resumed on Monday.

The Southern, United States and Adams Express Companies have been cited to appear on the same mission on August 1st. The proposed express rates are based largely upon the freight rates already worked out by the commission. The legal siatus of the express companies is said to be different from that of the railroads, and for this reason it is not likely that they will put up the same vigorous districts the commission.
